Dear Colleagues and Students,

2015-16 Teaching Excellence Award Winner of CLASS

Please join me in congratulating Dr Yanto Chandra, Assistant Professor in the Department of Public Policy with joint appointment with the Department of Management, for receiving the CityU Teaching Excellence Award this year.

Dr Chandra's research focuses on social innovation, sustainable enterprise, social investment, and entrepreneurship in general. The success in his teaching and learning endeavors has demonstrated how research can be integrated with teaching, and how faculty members as educators can motivate students to discover and innovate from their classroom teaching and learning.

I sincerely hope that faculty and teaching staff of CLASS will maintain the passion for providing high-quality education and pursuing excellence and innovation in teaching.

Best regards,

Xiaowei Zang
Professor and Dean
