Dear Professor Wang:

Thank you again for accepting to speak on Wed. Our last forum two months ago has invited the China Ambassador to Canada, a Canadian Senator and other notable scholars. It is a great honor to have you this time to help facilitate the understanding between China and the West.

Attached is the forum flyer. Please note that the time is 3-5pm Beijing time Wed 2021-8-11. Please enter the forum at least 30 minutes before your talk to test connection. Please remember to download tencent meeting (aka voov meeting).
<https://voovmeeting.com/download-center.html>

Here are the slots:

3:05-3:30 Benjamin Chiao, Professor, Paris School of Business

3:35-4:00 Cong Cao, Professor, Nottingham University China

4:05-4:30 Jiangyu Wang, Professor and Director of Centre for Chinese and Comparative Law, City University of Hong Kong, Editor-in-Chief of the Chinese Journal of Comparative Law

4:35-5:00 Wolfgang Röhr, Former Consul General of Germany in Shanghai

You are encouraged to develop the essence of your talk into a short op-ed (less than one thousand words), which we will help publish it in international newspapers. Our affiliates have published extensively worldwide. You could also choose to ask us to summarize your talk for this publication purpose if you want. If you have a contact of a reputable newspaper of your choice, please also let us know. The finished draft is ideally sent to the newspaper within 3 days when the forum ends.

Please do not hesitate to contact me for any questions at benjaminchiao@163.com or +86 18601032162.

Thank you very much.

Yours sincerely,

Benjamin Chiao
